Resolution 14-08

Youth Services Supportive Services Policy

Whereas, the Workforce Investment Act of 1998, Sec 134(G) (E) (2) allows for local areas to provide supportive services whenever funding allows, and

Whereas, the Jefferson-Lewis Workforce Investment Board has seen a decrease of funding and seeks to serve as many individuals as possible, and

Whereas, the Jefferson-Lewis Workforce Investment Board, will refer individuals to other agencies to seek to provide supportive services when deemed necessary to make it possible for eligible youth to participate in programs,

Therefore, be it resolved that the Jefferson-Lewis Workforce Investment Board will not be offering supportive services to youth and that Individual Training Accounts will remain capped at $3000.00.
