Resolution 14-10
Approval of Youth Services Providers
For Program Year 2015

Whereas, the provisions of the Workforce Investment Act of 1998 (Public Law 105-220) require certain program elements for the delivery of youth services under Title 1B of the Act to be competitively procured,

Whereas, the local workforce area complied with the provisions of the Workforce Investment Act by the placement of legal notices in area newspapers advertising the availability of the local Youth Request for Proposal (RFP), beginning on May 29, 2015 and posted on social media sites,

Whereas, the local area received one proposal for comprehensive youth services by the June 15, 2015 deadline date,

Whereas, it is recommended to the Workforce Investment Board that the following entities have submitted proposals that provide program elements in the delivery of comprehensive youth services that are appropriate for funding under Title 1B of WIA,

Therefore, be it resolved that the Workforce Investment Board does hereby approve the youth service providers listed below for Program year 2015 (July 1, 2015 – June 30, 2016) at the indicated funding levels:

Jefferson County Department of Employment & Training: $160,000.00

Lewis County Department of Employment & Training: $40,000.00
